ASSAULTED INSURANCE AGENT WITH A MONKEY WRENCH.

A warrant charging him with assault with a monkey wrench with intent to kill, was sworn out by Judge E. B. January last night against Aaron Cassidy, C. A. Ellis, an agent in the employ of the Metropolitan Insurance Co., was the complainant. It is alleged that Ellis went to Cassidy at the tailoring shop of Thomas Bros. on Main street to collect a premium from Cassidy, who it is said claimed to have previously paid the money. An argument ensued, culminating in Cassidy picking up a monkey wrench and striking Ellis on the jaw. The jawbone was fractured in three places. Ellis was taken to the office of Dr. F. M. Faries, where the fractured bone was set by Dr. Faries and Dr. Harry Mathers.

COLUMBIA THEATER

Today at the Columbia three first-class pictures will be shown. "Single Handed Jim," an American, a thrilling story picture of Western life with that little touch of romance that makes the pictures more interesting. "The Banker's Sons," a Majestic drama showing the power of money and how it can be used when those near to us are involved. "Get Rich Quick," a Keystone comedy, one of those pictures that makes all the people go to the Columbia. Mr. Percy Reed, baritone singer, will be heard both afternoon and evening.

A BUSY SALES AGENT.

Mr. T. A. Hendricks, the popular sales agent for the famous Higgin All Metal Screens, Weather Strips and the famous Walger New Model Awnings, was visitor in Paris yesterday. Mr. Hendricks says that Paris is undoubtedly the best town in his territory. He has fitted a hundred homes in Paris with the celebrated Higgin products. Yesterday he made several large contracts for fitting homes and public buildings with the Higgin Metal Weather Strips. He asks the News to say to the Paris people that on account of the rushing fall business, he may not be able to see all his customers in person, but if they will drop in a line to Lexington, or call phone 2585, he will either come to Paris or send a representative to make estimates on work for them. Don't forget the name, T. A. Hendricks, Lexington, Ky., phone 2585, agent for the famous Higgin All-Metal Screens and Metal Strips. Watch next issue of the News for advertisement. (1t)
